

Workshop Concert at Musik Hartwig

04/11/2015

Hi everyone,

The concert in Haimhausen was a real surprise. With an audience of 75, the Culture Pub was completely full and the three points in the program matched each other well. The following Monday, there was a very positive and extensive report in the local pages of the Süddeutschen Zeitung, one of our national dailies, that portrayed the evening well.

I'm now looking forward to a complete evening in the Concert Workshop. Setting out and arriving. Or is it arriving and then setting out? I hope I've put together a good program for the audience and I'd be pleased to see you there.
